

JOB POSTING

Position: Therapeutic Supervised Access Worker
Location: Vancouver
Position Type: Temporary Vacancy, 20 to 25 hours

Job Summary:

The Therapeutic Supervised Access Worker provides supervision and monitoring for visits between parents and their children where there are concerns for physical, psychological or emotional safety. Visits will take place in the family home, the foster family's home, or in a program or community setting. Visits could be between one family or with a group of families, if this is appropriate. The Therapeutic Supervised Access Worker will/may provide transportation to and from a visit for children. This position is temporary 20 to 25 hours per week. This position is temporary for 1 year and will be reevaluated prior to the end of the year. This position may be required to work weekends and evenings as well.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assess needs, past history of violence and level of vigilance required for visits.
- Schedule visits with family, foster family and select appropriate venue.
- Provide orientation to parents and their children separately.
- Establish guidelines with children and adults about limits on physical contact and signals to be used if they are feeling uncomfortable and want the visit to end.
- Transport family members to visit site, if needed, within the guidelines of confidentiality and prevention of possible violent situations.
- If warranted, meet parents and foster parents separately and ensure that they do not come in contact with one another to ensure safety and confidentiality.
- Set up play space with toys and activities appropriate to the age and developmental stage of the children.
- Remain with family for the duration of visit, monitoring all parent-child interactions for safety and appropriateness.
- Model appropriate childcare practice with reference to play, napping, personal care, and eating routines (when directed by Social Worker).
- Provide teaching and guidance to parents, if warranted, re: communication, appropriate child management etc (when directed by Social Worker).
- Provide reports about supervised visits, and be prepared to testify about this in court, if necessary.
- This position may involve flexible hours up to 25 hours (including evening, weekend and stat. holidays) work to accommodate needs of clients.
